Each year, teams across the United States, Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic compete for a spot in the RBI World Series at the Jackie Robinson Training Complex in Vero Beach, Fla. For the 17th consecutive year, the White Sox junior and senior baseball teams were composed of athletes from the organization's ACE program. $125K MOBILE CARE CHICAGO

Supporting a second mobile dental unit, Diamond Impact Award grant funding expands free, high-quality care to schools and daycares on Chicago's South and West Sides. JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 46th season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2026, only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to surpass the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership of the Philadelphia A's).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason seven times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2021 when the team captured the American League Central title to reach the postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Sox also captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008, as well as claiming a wild card berth in 2020. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf's White Sox teams have featured three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and José Abreu in 2020), two Cy Young Award winners (LaMarr Hoyt in 1983 and Jack McDowell in 1993), four Rookies of the Year (last Abreu in 2014), five Managers of the Year (last Ozzie Guillén in 2005) and two Executives of the Year (Roland Hemond in 1983 and Rick Hahn in 2020).

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received five prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In December 2022, Reinsdorf and the White Sox received MLB's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, recognizing the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) program which provides baseball and educational opportunities for underserved Chicago youth. Since its inception in 2007, over 33 ACE players have been drafted, while over 130 have earned college degrees and more than 115 are currently enrolled in college. Several other ACE alumni are working in baseball front offices, while several are in coaching positions across professional and college baseball. The White Sox are just the third franchise to be honored with the Selig Award twice, also being recognized in 2011 for the club's Volunteer Corps program, an initiative that activates staff, players, resources and over 5,000 fan volunteers for various projects improving the Chicagoland community.

In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service," while in August 2011, he received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $51 million to worthy Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20-plus years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

In recognition of his life-long commitment to diversity, the White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise was chosen to host MLB's Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in MLB initiatives at an industry-wide level. He served on the Commissioner's Executive Council and many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Raines in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019 and longtime great Minnie Miñoso was inducted in July 2022. Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his late wife, Martyl, have three surviving children, nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 46th season with the White Sox in 2026. Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, is responsible for the business and administrative operations of the Sox, as well as oversight of legal matters and governmental relations.

The more than 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012 before being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Reinsdorf in October 2012.

As a member of the MLB President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with executives across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-plus-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's seven postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2020 and 2021), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last three Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014, Harold Baines in 2019 and the induction of "Mr. White Sox," Minnie Minoso in 2022.

Pizer served as the lead White Sox contact with MLB for the Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa, in August 2021. Highlighted by Tim Anderson's dramatic walk-off home run, the nationally televised game against the New York Yankees was the most watched regular-season baseball game in 16 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive role at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the Bulls training center located next to the United Center, the Fifth Third Arena, the Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison for the White Sox with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. He has been responsible for the overall relationship between the White Sox and their long time concessionaires, Delaware North, and Levy Restaurants.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp.

Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities and is a longtime advocate for the franchise's Volunteer Corps initiative and Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, both of which have been honored by MLB with the Allan H. "Bud" Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

OFFICERS

CHRIS GETZ

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Getz begins his third full season as Executive Vice President/General Manager of the White Sox, looking to build on the club's second-half momentum from 2025. Getz, who oversaw the Sox minor league operations and player development system from 2017-23, was named general manager on August 31, 2023.

The 2025 Chicago White Sox showed a 19-game improvement from 2024, the second-best in Major League Baseball behind only the Toronto Blue Jays (+20) and the largest single-season increase by a White Sox team since 1999-2000 (+20).

Led by SS Colson Montgomery, a first-round pick (22nd overall) in 2021 who finished fifth in American League Rookie of the Year voting after making his debut on July 4, a young White Sox team used a second-half power surge to energize the future. Montgomery, who hit 21 home runs, led a group of talented rookies, including INF Chase Meidroth (April 11 debut), C Edgar Quero (April 17), C Kyle Teel (June 6) and RHP Grant Taylor (June 10). All-Star RHP Shane Smith and RHP Mike Vasil enjoyed breakout first seasons. Smith was the first Rule 5 pitcher in major-league history and the first rookie pitcher in Sox history to make the All-Star Team, while Vasil led all major-league rookie pitchers with a 2.50 ERA.

The biggest global headlines of the winter for the Sox came on December 21 when Getz signed Japanese superstar slugger Munetaka Murakami to a two-year, $34-million contract. The two-time Japanese Central League Most Valuable Player, Gold Medal winner and World Baseball Classic Champion, joined the White Sox after eight seasons with the Yakult Swallows. Murakami hit 30 or more home runs five times in the Japanese Baseball League, and his 56 home runs in 2022 are the most ever by a Japanese-born player, surpassing Sadaharu Oh.

Getz signed RHP Seranthony Domínguez to a two-year, $20-million contact in January, and also added LHPs Anthony Kay (two years, $12 million) and Sean Newcomb (one year, $4.5 million) via free agency. On January 20, Getz acquired OF/INF Luisangel Acuña and RHP Truman Pauley from the New York Mets in exchange for OF Luis Robert Jr.

At December's Winter Meetings, the White Sox received the first overall pick in the 2026 First-Year Player Draft, only the third time since the implementation of the draft in 1965 that the Sox have picked first (last time was Hall of Famer Harold Baines in 1977). Under his watch, the White Sox have selected LHP Hagen Smith (fifth overall), INF Caleb Bonemer (second round, 43rd overall) in 2024 and SS Billy Carlson (10th overall) and OF Jaden Fauske (second round, 44th overall) in 2025.

The White Sox organization features five players rated among the MLB Pipeline Top 100 prospects: OF Braden Montgomery (No. 36), LHP Noah Schultz (No. 49), Bonemer (No. 61) Smith (No. 72) and Carlson (No. 73). Class AA Birmingham claimed its second consecutive Southern League title in 2025 after finishing the regular season with an 81-57 mark, while Bonemer was named Carolina League Most Valuable Player.

Getz named Will Venable as the club's 44th different manager entering the 2025 season, and the organization added five major-league coaches prior to the 2026 season, including Zach Bove as pitching coach, Derek Shomon as hitting coach and Chris Denorfia as major league field coordinator.

Getz made one of baseball's biggest trades on December 11, 2024 at the Winter Meetings, acquiring Teel, Braden Montgomery, Meidroth and Wikelman González from Boston in exchange for LHP Garrett Crochet. During spring training of 2024, Getz traded RHP Dylan Cease to San Diego in exchange for RHPs Drew Thorpe, Jairo Iriarte and Steven Wilson and OF Sammy Zavala. At the trade deadline in July 2024, the Sox acquired 3B Miguel Vargas and INFs Alexander Albertus and Jeral Pérez from the Dodgers, RHP Jarold Rosado from the Royals and INF William Bergolla Jr. from Philadelphia.

Among his first moves as general manager in 2023, Getz named Josh Barfield as assistant general manager, Brian Bannister as senior advisor to pitching and Gene Watson as director of player personnel. Barfield and Director of Player Development Paul Janish lead the White Sox minor-league system. Getz rounded out the department by naming longtime baseball executive Jin Wong as assistant general manager. Prior to the 2025 season, he added David Keller as special assistant overseeing international operations and Ryan Fuller as the director of hitting. This offseason Getz added veteran front office executive Carlos Rodriguez, who had spent 16 seasons with Tampa Bay as assistant general manager.

Getz led the Sox minor league operations and player development system from 2017-23, including the last three with the added title of Assistant General Manager. Before his promotion in January 2021, he served as Director of Player Development from 2017-20 after being hired in October 2016. He spent 2015-16 as a Baseball Operations Assistant/Player Development with Royals, who won the 2015 World Series.

Getz handled day-to-day operations of the minor-league system and supervised operations in 2020-21 at the club's alternate training site in Schaumburg, Ill. Of note in 2018, he initiated a first-of-its-kind Enhanced Education Program for the organization's Latin American players.

Originally drafted by the White Sox in the fourth round in 2005, Getz played seven MLB seasons with the Sox (2008-09), Royals (2010-13) and Toronto (2014), batting .250 (352-1,409) in 459 games. His 83.2 percent (89-107) stolen-base success rate ranks 32nd in MLB history (min. 100 attempts). Getz was named to the Topps All-Star Rookie Roster in 2009.

A native of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and a graduate of the University of Michigan, Getz played at Wake Forest (2003) and Michigan (2004-05), earning First-Team All-America honors in 2005. On January 25, 2024, he was inducted into the newly established Grosse Pointe South High School Hall of Fame.

Getz is a member of the board of Chicago White Sox Charities. He and his wife, Nicole, reside in Winnetka, Ill. with their three children: Luke, Alexandra and Avery.

Tim Buzard begins his 45th season with the White Sox, the longest tenure of any chief financial officer in MLB. Promoted to Executive Vice President of Administration in 2025, Buzard oversees the ticket office, accounting, human resources, data processing and communications departments.

Buzard has played a major role in the implementation of MLB's revenue-sharing agreement as well as other league-wide financial and insurance initiatives. In 2020-21, he played a key role in the organization's human resource and financial response to the COVID-19 pandemic, including the franchise's ticketing policies related to the pandemic's impact on limited attendance in 2021 and the shortening of the 2020 season to 60 games played without any fans in attendance.

He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign for the White Sox, the development of a human resources department and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. Buzard is a member of the MLB Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Subscribers' Advisory Committee of the MLB Assurance Exchange Society, MLB's captive insurance company.

Promoted to senior vice president in 2004, Buzard was instrumental in the operation of the Chicago Bulls/White Sox Training Academy in Lisle, Ill., from 2001-2020. The facility, which offered professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction for kids of all ages up to professional athletes, saw more than one half million visitors during nearly two decades.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years. Buzard was born on September 13, 1955, in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin, and two grandchildren. The family resides in Riverwoods, Ill. The Buzards donate time as members of the White Sox Volunteer Corps and SHORE Community Services supporting individuals with developmental disabilities.

TERRY SAVARISE

Entering his 46th season with the Chicago White Sox, Terry Savarise spearheads the organization's efforts to build the next-generation ballpark for the White Sox. A veteran of more than 25 sports, entertainment and development projects, Savarise works alongside Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf to oversee all aspects of the campaign, including site selection, finance, planning and public affairs related to the development.

Savarise also serves as executive vice president – CEO of the United Center (UC), home of the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls and the six-time Stanley Cup Champion Chicago Blackhawks. The arena hosts over 220 major events each year, making it one of the busiest venues in the United States.

Phase 1 of the development, featuring a hotel and a 6,000-seat music hall, is scheduled to begin construction in early 2026, with the project set to open in Spring 2028. The 1901 Project development marks the largest private investment in the area's history.

The UC served as the host site for the 2024 Democratic National Convention, and Savarise oversaw all planning for the event, which drew a global audience of over 81 million viewers. Including the 1996 Democratic National Convention, also held at the UC, the city of Chicago has played host to 26 political conventions.

During his tenure, Savarise led the design and construction of the 960,000-square foot, multi-purpose arena and its surrounding campus – including the Chicago Bulls' Advocate Center, Blackhawks Ice Center and the United Center East Addition. To date, he is responsible for leading private investment of more than $1.5 billion on Chicago's West Side.

Savarise led efforts to make the UC a critical resource, including: a satellite storage facility for the Greater Chicago Food Depository holding 774,840 pounds of non-perishable items; one of the first PPE drives in collaboration with Project C.U.R.E. collecting over 13 pallets of PPE supplies for distribution among local healthcare providers; a PPE donation drop-off location for Team Rubicon, a veteran-led global disaster response organization; Chicago's first mass vaccination site from March-June 2021, administering more than 301,000 vaccines.

Savarise was responsible for the planning and construction of the current ballpark, which opened in 1991. In his previous role as the senior vice president of park operations, he has overseen all operations of the ballpark and its renovations and remodeling efforts, including the installation of three new video boards in 2016 and new LED field lighting as part of a green initiative in 2020.

Savarise sits on the board of the joint venture which runs Camelback Ranch – Glendale.

Savarise is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association. OFFICERS

BROOKS BOYER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF REVENUE AND MARKETING OFFICER

Brooks Boyer enters his 23rd season with the White Sox, overseeing all revenue and marketing functions for the Club, which include retail and brand marketing, broadcasting, game operations, promotions, advertising, licensing, business analytics and business development departments as well as sales and service efforts for tickets, premium seating, corporate partnerships, and food and beverage.

As part of his role, Boyer sets the strategic vision for the White Sox business, guides the White Sox brand, champions innovation across all areas of the business and manages a wide array of employees.

Boyer's top priority is creating fan value and delivering the best possible gameday experience for all baseball fans who attend Rate Field. During Boyer's tenure, the White Sox set a single season tickets sold franchise record with 2,957,111 in 2006 and have compiled six of the top 10 overall attendance seasons in franchise history.

During his tenure, Boyer has continued the evolution of the Rate Field experience highlighted by the introduction of popular ballpark amenities, such as the CIBC Scout Seats, Rate Club, the White Sox Team Store – a Fanatics Experience located outside Gate 5, incorporating many of the Club's top sponsors. Boyer secured the club's first ever jersey patch sponsorship with CME Group, marking a milestone moment in franchise history. The partnership with the world's largest derivatives marketplace, headquartered in Chicago, brings together two iconic Chicago brands.

His game operations staff is responsible for developing the team's ballpark experience, highlighted by orchestrating fan participation in the historic "blackout game" tiebreaker vs. Minnesota in 2008 as well as the return of the popular "blackout game" in 2021 for the American League Division Series at Rate Field, establishing season-long promotions such as premium giveaway days, signature fireworks nights, and Family Sundays.

In 2021, Boyer served as one of the team's main contacts for the inaugural signature event, "MLB at Field of Dreams" in a newly constructed field among the corn in Dyersville, Iowa. The White Sox win over the New York Yankees with a walk-off home run was the most watched regular season game in 16 years.

Under Boyer's direction, the White Sox have introduced many technical developments, including digital ticketing, variable and dynamic pricing, and a Customer Relationship Management system and data warehouse that has enhanced customer service and data management. Boyer incorporates the long-term development of the fan base through the team's youth marketing initiatives. The team touts partnerships with 21 youth baseball leagues in communities throughout Illinois and Indiana, where every player in every league learns and plays the game with a White Sox jersey and cap.

Boyer oversees the annual branding campaigns and a team of marketers specializing in promotions, marketing strategy, digital marketing, youth marketing and market segmentation.

Boyer helped direct the formation and distribution of the Chicago Sports Network, the television home of the Chicago Blackhawks, Bulls and White Sox established in 2025, with first-class coverage of more than 300 live games. He directs the club's relationships with its broadcast partners, including the team's flagship radio station, ESPN 1000.

Boyer also is a board member of Chicago White Sox Charities. Boyer co-founded Silver Chalice Ventures, formed in 2009, which launched Stadium, a 24/7 multi-platform sports network available in broadcast and cable markets across the country as well as through a vast number of leading digital platforms.

Boyer serves as an alternate board member for Stadium. Prior to joining the Sox in April 2004, Boyer spent 10 years with the Chicago Bulls in their corporate partnerships department.

A 1994 graduate of Notre Dame, where he was a two-time captain of the basketball team (1990-94), Boyer also is a graduate of the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at DePaul and is an inductee into the Lumen Christi High School (Jackson, Michigan) Sports Hall of Fame.

Boyer and his wife, Julie, reside in Downers Grove with their six children: Joslyn (24), Kylie (23), Reeghan (22), Quinn (20), Brody (18) and Brynlee (16). SCOTT REIFERT

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

As White Sox executive vice president of communications, Scott Reifert is responsible for all aspects of the organization's communications with its fans. Reifert also oversees the club's strategic communications efforts, media services, public relations, digital video and social content, as well as community relations initiatives and Chicago White Sox Charities events, fundraising and giving.

In December 2022, the White Sox received MLB's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, recognizing the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) program which provides baseball and educational opportunities for underserved Chicago youth. Since its inception in 2007, more than 33 ACE players have been selected in the draft, while more than 300 have signed scholarships to play college baseball. Several ACE alums work in baseball front offices or in coaching positions across professional and college baseball. The Sox are the third franchise to win the Selig Award twice, also being recognized in 2011 for their Volunteer Corps program, an initiative that activates staff, players, resources and over 5,000 fan volunteers for various projects to improve the community.

In his 36th season, Reifert has experienced the inductions of 10 former White Sox stars into the Baseball Hall of Fame, an Executive of the Year (Rick Hahn in 2020), three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and José Abreu in 2020), three Manager of the Year Awards (Gene Lamont in 1993, Jerry Manuel in 2000 and Ozzie Guillén in 2005), two Rookies of the Year (Gordon Beckham in 2009 and Abreu in 2014), a Mariano Rivera American League Relief Pitcher of the Year (Liam Hendriks in 2021) and a Cy Young Award winner (Jack McDowell in 1993). Ken "Hawk" Harrelson received the Hall of Fame's Frick Award in 2020 for his contributions to baseball as a broadcaster.

The White Sox digital communications video team, SoxTV, has won three prestigious EMMY awards from the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences in the category of Outstanding Achievement for Sports Program for a Feature/Segment, and in 2018, partnered with NBC Sports Chicago to produce the well-received documentary, "Hawk," that chronicled the baseball career of Harrelson during the broadcaster's final season. WHITE SOX HISTORICAL NOTES

- The 1960 White Sox were the first major-league team with player names on the backs of their uniforms.
- The first official American League game was played on April 24, 1901 between the White Sox and Cleveland Indians at South Side Park … the Sox recorded an 8-2 victory, with Roy Patterson earning the win.
- White Sox shortstop Chico Carrasquel, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the first Latin American player to appear in an All-Star game when he represented the AL in 1951 at Detroit … Minnie Miñoso, who broke the Sox color barrier on May 1, 1951, was a substitute in that game.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete a three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

WHITE SOX WIRE-TO-WIRE

● The 2005 White Sox were in first place all 183 days during their world championship season, breaking the franchise record set in 2000 (169), and also eclipsing the club record for most consecutive days spent in first place (167), also set in 2000 … the 1919 Sox spent 134 days in first place, followed by the 1901 (128), 1917 (126), 1993 (125) and 2012 (117) clubs.

GAME 1: ANGELS 3, WHITE SOX 2

Notes: Despite playing in three time zones in three straight nights, the Angels received a solid outing by Paul Byrd and a solo home run by Garret Anderson to take a 1-0 advantage in the ALCS … Byrd, pitching on three days rest, allowed two runs on six hits in 6.0 IP … José Contreras (3 ER/7.0 IP) saw his nine-game winning streak come to an end … Joe Crede hit his first home run of the playoffs, a solo shot in the third inning … Neal Cotts retired both batters faced, the only appearance by a Sox reliever in the series … the White Sox fell to 0-6 in the ALCS at home.

Pierzynski, who reached first base on a dropped third strike … Mark Buehrle recorded a complete-game victory, throwing 99 pitches (71 strikes).

Notes: Jon Garland pitched a four-hitter, and Paul Konerko hit a two-run homer as the White Sox beat the Angels, 5-2, to take a 2-1 lead in the ALCS … Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 … the Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) homer off John Lackey … Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits … Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) … García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five … A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan … Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game … Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

GAME 5: WHITE SOX 6, ANGELS 3

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS … José Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 … the Angels led, 3-2, when Joe Crede hit a leadoff homer in the seventh off Kelvim Escobar … after Aaron Rowand walked, and A.J. Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run … Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly … the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 1: WHITE SOX 5, ASTROS 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox posted a 5-3 victory vs. Houston … Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning … the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI groundout and Juan Uribe's RBI double … Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodríguez in the fourth … Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat … Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring … José Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite tying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

GAME 2: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 6

Notes: Paul Konerko hit the 18th grand slam in World Series history, and Scott Podsednik hit a game-ending home run as the White Sox won Game 2, 7-6 … with the Sox trailing, 4-2, in the seventh inning, Konerko homered on Chad Qualls' first pitch to put the Sox in front, 6-4 … Houston tied the game in the ninth when pinch-hitter José Vizcaíno laced an opposite-field, two-run single off Bobby Jenks with two outs to set up Podsednik's heroics … Podsednik, who went homerless in the regular season, hit a 2-1 pitch from Brad Lidge over the right-center field fence for the 14th game-ending homer in World Series history … the game was delayed seven minutes by rain, the first in a World Series since Game 3 in 1993 at Philadelphia (1:12) … each Sox player collected at least one hit.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie … Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead … Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk … Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game … the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th … Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced … Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 … Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 … the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park … Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris … Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out … Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game … starters Brandon Backe and Freddy García each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP … the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series … Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

WRONG SIDE OF HISTORY

- The White Sox lost a major-league record 121 games in 2024, breaking the mark of 120 set by the 1962 New York Mets.
- The Sox endured three losing streaks of 10-plus games during the season: a then franchise-record 14 games from May 22-June 7, 21 from July 10-August 5 and 12 from August 23-September 3 … they joined the 1911 Boston Rustlers, 1935 Boston Braves and 2021 Baltimore Orioles as the only teams in the modern era (since 1901) to record multiple 14-plus game losing streaks in a single season (Elias) … Chicago's 21-game slide tied the 1988 Baltimore Orioles for the second-longest in MLB history behind the 1961 Philadelphia Phillies (23).
- The White Sox went 23-58 (.284) at home in 2024, the lowest winning percentage in franchise history … they lost 28 of 29 games from July 10-2 vs. Minnesota to September 13, bookending that stretch with a franchise-record, 12-game losing streak followed by a new franchise-record, 16-game streak.
- The Sox rebounded to go 60-102 in 2025, the second-largest improvement in baseball (19 games) behind Toronto (+20) and their largest single-season increase since 1999-2000 (75 to 95).

FOLLOW THE LEADER

● The White Sox set a major-league record by holding the lead in each of their first 37 games in 2005, breaking the previous mark of 25 straight held by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers … the Sox 37-game streak also tied for the third-longest ever in major-league history, trailing only the 1998 Yankees (48) and 1932 Yankees (40).

PERFECT HOMESTANDS

● The White Sox recorded the seventh perfect homestand in franchise history (six games or more) on August 20-26, 2012, sweeping three-game series from the Yankees and Seattle … the Sox also have accomplished the feat in 2010 (7-0 vs. Kansas City and Los Angeles-AL), 2008 (7-0 vs. Kansas City and Minnesota), 1989 (6-0 vs. Milwaukee and New York), 1983 (7-0 vs. Oakland and California), 1972 (7-0 vs. Texas, Kansas City and Cleveland) and 1965 (7-0 vs. Kansas City and Los Angeles).

THIGPEN SAVES THE DAY

● Bobby Thigpen saved a major-league record 57 games for the White Sox in 1990, the final season at old Comiskey Park. Thigpen's 57 saves broke the previous mark of 46 set by the Yankees' Dave Righetti in 1986. His record has since been broken by the Angels' Francisco Rodríguez (62) in 2002 and equaled by the Seattle's Edwin Díaz in 2018.

#Tied For League Lead

THE BIG HURT

● With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title … Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328).

● At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also is the largest player to win a batting title … Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Miguel Cabrera (2011-13, '15) was listed at 250 pounds.

CROCHET MAKES HISTORY

● LHP Garrett Crochet became the second pitcher in White Sox history to make his first major-league start on Opening Day when he faced Detroit on March 28, 2024 in Chicago … Crochet allowed one run on five hits over 6.0 IP and became just the third left-hander in American League history to record eight-plus strikeouts with no walks on Opening Day, joining Oakland's Mark Mulder in 2002 and the White Sox' Gary Peters in 1969.

STREAKING SOX

● The White Sox won 11 consecutive games from June 15-26, 2010, tied for the sixth-longest streak in franchise history, and their longest since a 12-game run from June 17-27, 1961 … the Sox went 25-5 to end the first half of 2010, matching the 1975 Cincinnati Reds and 1990 New York Mets for the best record in major-league history in the final 30 games before the All-Star Break.

Sarasota, Fla. 1960-1997

Glendale, Ariz. 2009-current

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its 18th season as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-art stadium that seats 13,500 fans (10,500 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inning, 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Connectivity

- Fans are able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the stadium by connecting to the CRG_Public network, opening a browser, and following instructionsfor Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Team Buildings

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four MLB, eight MiLB) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field.
- On the White Sox side, the club in 2020 completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

Clubhouse Store

- The stadium added an improved and larger satellite Clubhouse Store location down the left field line prior to the 2022 season. The container structure features New Era product, Spring Training-exclusive and White Sox merchandise.

- A Player's decision to challenge must be unaided (i.e., dugout may not encourage a player to challenge)

How to Challenge

- Tap the top of your head and verbally request a challenge
- Challenges must be made immediately after the umpire's call or after the resolution of an intermittent play (e.g., stolen base attempt, appeal of a potential check swing)
- Umpires may deny Challenges that are not requested immediately or those that are prompted by coaches / teammates

If any part of the baseball touches the strike zone, it is a strike. The baseball must be entirely outside the strike zone for it to be called a ball.

Related Regulations

Runner Placement

- If the umpires determine that an incorrect call of ball or strike had no effect on subsequent behavior, the umpires will let stand any calls unaffected by the incorrect ball / strike call
- Otherwise, runners will be placed at the last base legally touched at the time of the challenge

Replay Integration

- No ABS Challenges following Replay Reviews
- If a manager want to challenge a play following an ABS Challenge, the request must come immediately after the conclusion of the ABS Challenge

¿Cómo desafiar?

- Tocar la parte superior de la cabeza y solicitar verbalmente un desafío
- Los desafíos deben realizarse inmediatamente después de la decisión del árbitro o después de la resolución de una jugada intermitente (por ejemplo, intento de robo de base, apelación de un posible chequeo de swing).
- Los árbitros pueden negar desafíos que no se solicitan inmediatamente o aquellos que son impulsados por coaches/compañeros de equipo.

Dimensión de la Zona de Strike

Ancho

Regulaciónes Relacionadas

Colocación de Corredores

- Si los árbitros determinan que una llamada incorrecta de bola o strike no tuvo efecto en la jugada posterior, los árbitros mantendrán cualquier decisión que no haya sido afectada por dicha llamada incorrecta de bola o strike
- De lo contrario, se ubicará a los corredores en la última base que hayan pisado legalmente en el momento en que se solicitó el desafío

Integración de la Repetición

- No se permiten desafíos de ABS tras una revisión de repetición
- Si un dirigente desea desafiar una jugada después de un desafío de ABS, la solicitud debe realizarse inmediatamente después de que concluya el desafío de ABS
